CONVENTION

Phi Mu has the chance of its life! After February no Alpha Chi Rho can be in the dark about our Chapter. We'll be on the map in capital letters and we can strut our stuff. And whether or not we have stuff to strut you will have a chance to see on George's next birthday.

Brothers Astarita and Dorton are on the Convention Committee and they have been working towards completion of plans on this end of the line. We are fortunate in having the new Hill-to-Hill Bridge recently opened and Bethlehem is now spanned by a beautiful elevated roadway from Hotel Bethlehem to within one block of the Chapter House. All of the Convention affairs will be held at the Hotel, but the house is so nearby that we expect every one of the visitors to drop over and see us. The Lafayette Brothers are working with us to put the big thing over, and under the able direction of Brother Carl T. Sigman, with his efficient assistants we expect it to go over big.

The Phi Phis claim that they will capture the quota cup. Now listen, grads. Don't let them get away with it. Our Graduate Chapter isn't so very large and you are scattered all over the map, but there is no reason why you can't be here to swell the quota and help the Phi Mu representation. Maybe you will want to see some of your old college sweethearts or, if you bring your wife,—maybe you won't. But, take a chance, anyhow—we'll be looking for you.

UNITY

Phi Mu is looking ahead to the brightest year of its young life. An interesting rushing season with a gratifying result has left us with a large group of men of high calibre, eager to join in the spirit of the Chapter to work and achieve. By the time this writing is in your hands we will have had a most successful formal dance with Phi Alpha as our guests, further evidence of the increasing Fraternalism between the two Chapters. Lehigh's football successes and, subsequently, Lehigh's being placed on the map very prominently, has raised our spirits considerably. Convention looms up on the horizon not so far distant—the big event of the season.

Aside from these external evidences of smiling fortune, there is throughout the Chapter a progressive spirit aided by a harmony of feeling that makes our success doubly sure. There are among us a group of men whose initiative to work makes no material job around the house impossible. Our new men are disciplined in a rigid, yet happy method and there is not an element in the house which makes for ill-feeling. Instead there is an all-pervading spirit of unity with which we will face the problems of the season and see only prosperity ahead of us.

We claim this, not with a will to show a smoothe surface, but we say it truthfully to assure our graduates and the Fraternity at large that our Phi is carrying on with an unconquerable will to achieve and ability with which to do it. We want our grads to come back to us and see for themselves. The Old Guard, and we dub them this in a sense of honor only, can do more for us by returning to the Chapter as often as they possibly can. They can show their interest and loyalty to Phi Mu in no better way than to come back to us and to be one of us again. Pleading for money, although often necessary, seems cold and inhospitable. We want our Old Guard to know what we are doing, to advise and encourage us, to be with us and to enjoy themselves with us. There is no other way to bring this about than frequent visits to the Chapter and we earnestly beseech the grads to drop in on us, whether an excuse offers itself or not. Come back often, grads, and see our working unit.

IMPORTANT GRAD MEETING

Grads, keep an open date for Sunday afternoon, February 22d! We are going to have a meeting at the Chapter House directly after a big dinner the Residents are tendering us. The business for the day is the reorganization of the Graduate Chapter and future financing of the Chapter. Two other things which will have to be attended to is the election of a new secretary, since Snork Thomas has gone to Oklahoma, and the election of a permanent Graduate Editor of "Musings."

Try and BE THERE!

"CURLY" WALDEN

Upon the resignation of Brother Griebeling as National Secretary, a man very capable, efficient and pains-taking, assumed the duties of his office. Brother Wilbur M. Walden, Cornell '11, received the appointment and, judging from his visit to Phi "Moo," the smooth-running machine of Alpha Chi Rho will continue its well-oiled motion.

"Curly" was greeted with hearty approval and everything the Chapter could do to make his visit a pleasant one was attended to immediately. His trip took in the two excellent Chapters at Syracuse and Cornell, respectively, so we were a little skeptical as to his opinion of the boys. Our fears were without any ground, however, for he left us with the good name of Phi Moo unsmirched.

"Curly" could not be interested in any of our Bethlehem girls and still bids fair to remain unattached. Heart and Fancy Free, and a darn good National Secretary, we say. Here is to his success in his new office!

PICTURE THIS!

Time passes quickly and often Phi Mu faces are forgotten. Brothers who wrestled degrees from Thorny several years ago and who seldom get a chance to visit the house are fast sinking into oblivion. The walls of the Phi Mu house are covered with pictures, but there are only a few photographs of the Brothers who have gone before. Only four classes of the nine which have graduated since Phi Mu was installed at Lehigh are represented on the walls.

We want the pictures of every man who is a member of Phi Mu. If each and every man of the classes of '20, '21, '22, '23 and '24 will scratch around for a good photograph (cabinet size) and address it to William F. Feuerbach at the house, the Chapter will see that the class groups are placed on the walls.

The total number of members in Phi Mu is now ninety-nine. That means there are a lot of names and faces to remember. Each year the total grows. Make it more pleasant for yourself by sending your picture so that the Chapter will know you before you get there. It will be a lot nicer for a Brother whom you never saw before to say: "Hello, Jim!" or "Hello, Eagle!" than to have one of them walk to you and say, "Are you looking for someone?"

Think it over and SEND YOUR PICTURE!

WHAT CONVENTION MEANS TO YOU

It is a Chance to meet your bunch again;
It is an Opportunity to meet the new Brothers;
Neglect means a loss to you and us.
It will Verify all the news you've heard;
It will Enable you to get out of the rut for a time;
It will Net you a wonderful week-end.
Come to Tune up your Fraternity interest;
Come to Increase the years in your life.
Obey the impulse and come.
You'll Never regret it!

It is too bad that "Musings" cannot be published with just air to support it. If it could, Phi Mu would have a copy in your hands quite often. But we need shekels to keep it going. Have you contributed lately? If you haven't, please be loyal enough to send your check to Louie Huyette at the House.

OUR NEW PUBLICATION MANAGER

Brother Shaw Livermore, Dartmouth '22, has succeeded Brother William Thompson Smith as Publication Manager of the "Garnet and White." Brother Livermore is one of the capable young men of Alpha Chi Rho and the Fraternity is fortunate in securing a young man of such ability and enthusiasm for work. He is a charter member of the Phi Nu Chapter and his activities for the Fraternity have been outstanding and of such a degree as to make his a fit example for any Alpha Chi Rho man.

As Phi Nu's Chapter Correspondent, he served the Fraternity creditably and not only acquainted himself with the duties of a Chapter of a great National Fraternity, but interested himself in the other Chapters and the national body. He became a member of the executive committee of Phi Nu and was elected in 1921 as the head of the Chapter. His leadership proved to be of great help to the Chapter, and success was with all of his undertakings.

After graduating he retained his interest in the Fraternity and did excellent work in the Phi Nu Graduate Chapter, and was actively engaged in the Building Association. Taking up graduate work at the Harvard Business School, he won scholastic honors as easily as he had while at Dartmouth. Completing his course at the Harvard Business School, he selected, from a list of many positions offered, the duties of Assistant Dean of the Harvard Business School.

PHI MU ADDITIONS

ARTHUR FAIRCHILDS SEARING, Bus. Ad., '28 Glen Ridge, N.J.
"Art"

Art was Phi Mu's guest several times last year, so when he came to Lehigh this fall, he fell right into line. His favorite pastime seems to be showing the rest of the boys how to take advantage of his being introduced to the "femmes" last year. We feel proud of Art, but we must admit one thing, namely, WHAT A GUY!!!

Glen Ridge High School:—Class track (1, 2, 3); Class basketball (3, 4.)

DONALD CHARLES NELSON, M. E., '28 Wyckoff, N. J.
"Don"

Don is another big boy and started out with frosh football, but his roster was too heavy and he had to abandon the gridiron. Between his study hours he may be seen cavorting around the House daily with a pigskin under his arm. This is his only excuse for being the last to leave the table, since he firmly believes in getting the most out of the Commissary.

Stevens School:—Football (4); Baseball (4); Phi Alpha Sigma.

LEONARD MEAD HORTON, Bus. Ad., '28 Glen Ridge, N. J.
"Len"

A shuffle along the corridor, a tall lad with a slow, lazy yet graceful, motion appears. Suddenly a smile spreads itself over his countenance, like sunshine after the rain, and a slow drawling greeting is directed toward you.

Brothers, you have met Len Horton.

Len is making things hustle around the campus, contrary to your deductions, for he gained a position on the "Brown and White" board. Another distinguishing feature of Len is his great success with the opposite sex. Glen Ridge, Newark, Montclair and all those big towns have tasted of the ways of our young Sir Gallahad.

Glen Ridge High School:—Asst. Bus. Mgr. of the "Comet" (4); Class Basketball (3, 4); Class Track (4); Junior Play (3); Delta Sigma Nu.

JAMES HENRI BEAUCHAMP, Bus. Ad., '28 Bethlehem, Pa.

Hen is a native of this city and after attending Moravian for a year, he came to Lehigh with a fine record. Knowing the town as he does, he is a most welcome guide to the rest of the boys. Though he does not live at the House, hardly a day goes by that his pleasant smile and cheery "Hello, Gang!" does not greet us.

Liberty High School:—Football squad (3, 4); Baseball squad (3, 4); Glee Club (4); Class Vice-President (1), Basketball (4).
Moravian College:—Baseball (1); Basketball (1).

ALBERT RUSSELL LAUGHLIN, JR., E. E., '28 Cynwyd, Pa.
"Rus" "Sis"

Cynwyd, Philadelphia's elite suburb, is responsible for this youthful chap. He first started to study at the William Penn Charter School, but gradually tired of commuting and transferred to Lower Merion, where he continued on his way to fame. Sis is quite a scholar and already stands well in his classes. Besides this, he is out for the Brown and White Board and expects to make use of his dramatic ability in the spring.

Lower Merion High School.

"Park" "Bogs"

A social sophomore, lording his previous experience, loud ties and laughter over the freshmen, is our "Bogs" Parker. He came to us from Washington College and intends to startle Greenwich after completing his business training at Lehigh. While he is not floating his potatoes in gravy or preoccupied with Phi Mu's new eight-tube radio set, he may be found in a heavy discourse on women and their ways.

Greenwich High School; Baseball (2); Asst. Mgr. Football (3); Mgr. Football (4); Football (1, 2, 3, 4); Dramatic Club (4).
Washington College, Mt. Vernon Literary Society.

JOHN EDGAR SHURTLEFF, Bus. Ad., '27 Clark Summit, Pa.
"Jack"

Jack was pledged to Alpha Chi Rho last May and initiated late in September. Our new Brother has already developed into one of the most popular men in his class. He is an associate editor on the "Brown and White," is out for a position on the "Burr" staff, and is a strong contender in the competition for soccer manager.

Clark Summit High School:—Football (3, 4); Track (4); Senior Play (4); Class President (1, 4); Athletic Association President (4).

GEORGE HENRY CAMPBELL, Bus. Ad., '28 Beaver, Pa.
"Buddy" "Lardy"

Buddy was with us a short time last fall, but left to attend Geneva College. Buddy did not wait a year before changing his course from mining to business, but did it "toute de suite." He finds it hard to resist the women and Allentown seems to be Lardy's favorite habitat.

Beaver High School:—Football (2, 3, 4).
Geneva College.

LESTER ATKIN DEGROOT, B. A., '28 Richmond Hill, L. I.
"Les" "De Pester"

Another New Yoiker was added to the chapter in the personage of Les DeGroot, and although he is the diminutive member of the new class, he has more than made up for it by his dynamic energy. When he is not "at the pitcher-show," he may be seen throwing and kicking the house football all over the grounds with Don Nelson. To show his extreme versatility, he originated the popular sport at the dinner table, "Hide the Napkin." Despite these little eccentricities, common to all New Yoikers, great deeds are expected from him during his college career.

Richmond Hill High School:—Baseball squad (3, 4); Basketball squad (3, 4); Soccer (4); Omega Gamma Delta.

DEAN WHIPPLE BRADFORD, E. E., '28 Nashville, Tenn.
"Dean" "Romeo"

"Well now, down in Tennessee, thar is a little girl" (and many more besides). But the distance separating Dean from his sweethearts means nothing, because every day sees a pretty pink envelope (stationery) on the hall table, addressed to a Mr. Romeo Dean Bradford, Esq. His winning way, we hope may also be witnessed in wrestling, for he is out for the frosh wrestling team and is practically sure of sporting a "1928" next spring.

Our level-headed southerner is bound to make his name go down in the annals of Lehigh. We'll all behind you, Dean, old man!

Montgomery Bell Academy:—Football (2); Bus. Mgr. School Publication (4); Chairman of School Committee (3); Chairman of Dance Committee (4); Kappa Alpha Phi, Vice-President and Secretary (2, 3), President (4), National Recorder.

MASON E. TURNER, E. M., '28 Oceanside, L. I.

Mace is a serious minded chap and is hitting the books like the "bards of old." Besides graduating from Lehigh, getting a few scholarship prizes and making Tau Beta Pi, Mace's remaining ambition is to get his "L" in track. In addition to being a famous track man, Mace is the running mate of John Held, Jr. Turner's sketches are already being used in the "Burr." In the recent elections of the freshman class, he was elected Historian.

Glen Ridge High School:—Football (4); Track (4); Class Track (1, 2, 3); Interscholastic Shot-Put Champion of New Jersey (4); Class Basketball (2, 3).

RUSHING SEASON AND THE SMOKER

No issue of "Musings" would be complete without a review of Rushing Season and the Smoker. Rushing really started at the House a few days before College opened. The Class of 1928 offered a store of good material and the wild cut-throating of other years was in some measure abated.

Rushing Season on the whole was the best that Phi Mu has had in a number of years. The first Saturday night after the opening of College, nearly all the rushees were taken over to Phi Alpha, where a dance was in progress.

The Smoker was a great success, and the stag party was the largest that the living room had seen since Alpha Chi Rho took possession. All the Grads who joined the party were especially glad that they had found the opportunity to visit the Chapter House, as the entertainment was excellent. A number of the Brothers from Phi Alpha wandered over with several Postulants. All the men who were later pledged were present.

The festivities started with dinner, enlivened by music from a local orchestra, engaged to entertain for the evening. After the dinner, Freddie and Ollie entertained in their inimitable manner, with several snappy songs. While the orchestra played, these embryo Broadway stars gave a dance. Ollie was dressed in a costume that outdid anything Whitey Wardell had seen in the Follies Bergere last summer.

To the stirring strains of "Hearts and Flowers," the German-town collegiates gave that well known sketch of "Gypsa and Pembroke," or "No Matter How Good a Car Is, I Must Have One More," by General Motors Hursh. Joe Moclair then gave a soft shoe dance, with an imitation of Pat Rooney thrown in. It got away big, and Joe was given a fine hand.

The refreshments furnished by Banker Rice—ice cream sundaes, coffee and cake—relieved the dryness occasioned by much smoking. This concluded the entertainment for the evening, and Station MOO signed off, after seeing all the guests on their way. The Smoker was one of the biggest factors in the whole ten-day period, occurring as it did the last night that the Chapter could speak to the new men.

The next day was the last day of rushing season. The silence period began at twelve o'clock noon. That afternoon, nearly all the rushees were sent over to Easton to spend the time until nightfall. In the evening, at the close of silence period, the anxiety of the Brothers was relieved when ten men appeared at dinner wearing the Labarum.

1924 GRADUATES

ALFRED W. JOHNSON, E. E., '24 West Hartford, Conn.

Known as "Pop" and "Al"

Pop, so nicknamed by reason of his capacity in fathering the boys last season, finally won out at the end of a long siege against the faculty. As the last man leaving us who lived in the old Vine Street home, he has seen the rise of Phi Mu to its present standing and is in a position to review our history better, perhaps, than any other man. A member of the Electrical Engineering Society and the Glee Club he devoted most of his time to acquiring the long-coveted sheepskin.

Brother Johnson was a strict adherent to the rules of the Fraternity and one who forsook all other pleasure to use his time for the betterment of the chapter. He was unselfish, thoughtful and considerate of the needs of the other Brothers, devoting his entire efforts in a relentless and "never-say-die" manner for which he will be well remembered and held high in the esteem of his classmates and Brothers.

RALPH E. UNDERWOOD, B. A., '24

Great Neck, L. I.

Known as "Ted"

Brother Ralph Edward Underwood graduated from Lehigh University with the highest scholastic honors that it is possible for a man to earn who is taking the Art course. To many this would give them the impression that he was a good scholar and maybe a pretty good fellow. He was far more than that.

He was one of the most active members of university activities, entering into athletics as well as publication duties. "Ted" was, and still is, a member of the best orchestra in the University, naturally, being composed of five Alpha Chi Rho men, all of Phi Mu. A musician, a scholar, a swimmer, a good dancer and conversationalist, what better combination could be asked for in any man?

Brother Underwood, after a four-month-trip abroad, began his business career with the New York Telephone Company, where he is earnestly engrossed with his duties. A very bright future is in store for Brother Underwood. Another name for Who's Who.

JUST DOPE

It was a pleasant little reunion at the Phi Mu House the week-end of October 25. The Resident Brothers of other days swarmed down on us with a gusto, and an orgy of hand-shaking and back-slapping prevailed thruout those two gloriously hectic days.

The Underwood brothers, Doc and Ted; "Q" Kramer; Buck Snavelly; "Lucky" Pierre, of Phi Phi, and Duke Davis, Sigma Phi from Lehigh, formed one of the invading parties, altho their arrival was heralded by an artistic announcement created by Doc. After their influx, this party split up into several parts to amuse themselves in varied and sundry ways. Apparently their Saturday evening's diversion was comparatively mild, for all reported on deck Sunday and in good spirits.

Al and Judy Gardy, Leon Fritchman, Walt Woolley, Walt Greacen and Eddie Fincke composed a coterie that became re-acquainted with Phi Mu and Lehigh.

The Underwoods' Great Neck-ing expedition left Sunday afternoon, but minus the rear bumper on the Apperson. Incidentally the demolition of same was never adequately explained and left a matter of conjecture for the other Brothers to ponder o'er. The remainder of the genial horde, with the exception of Judy, left some time between Saturday and Sunday evenings. Judy devoted a busy two days to whipping the graduate work of this "Musings" into shape, leaving on Wednesday morning.

Very prominent among our week-end visitors was Brother Walden, Alpha Chi Rho's new National Secretary. "Curly" expressed a very favorable opinion of Phi Mu, and Phi Mu reciprocated this feeling toward "Curly."

All in all it was a "right large week-end," as Firpo would put it, and we trust as much a source of pleasure to our visitors as to us.

It is our hearty desire that the Graduate Brothers make us more frequent visits, talk over old times, join in the bull sessions with the newer regime and learn of Jim Hursh's latest acquisition—whether it be a new car or a new girl; become decisively convinced that Asty is a huntsman of the first order, last and all the time, while Larry Kingham is equally as rabid in his feminine views. Have Dave Fulton tell you all about our freshmen, and then talk to the new men themselves. It is a pleasure and a privilege to hear Romeo Dean Bradford discourse in his Tennessee vernacular on frills and frails 'way down South in Nashville. Allow C. Harwood Parker, another of our rushing season's pride, to tell you—"By Gees, don't drink that stuff!"

However, there is one drawback to spending a week-end at Phi Mu. Namely, you will note the absence of the smiling visages of our Germantown Damon and Pythias pair—Brothers Zurn and Huyette. Ollie and Louie invariably play big time stuff in Philly over each and every week-end, thereby leaving Victor Bachman immune from his customary sleigh ride and the Ford at Tom Cooke's disposal.

There are a thousand and one different topics of discourse to amuse you, young and old, and to bring back memories of your Phi Mu days.

The Resident Chapter is setting a good example in the way of life subscriptions to the "Garnet and White." All of the members are life subscribers. Grads, how 'bout you? If you haven't made your payment in full, Brother Shaw Livermore is waiting at 159 Hancock Street, Cambridge, Mass., for it. Put your John Hancock on a check for the remaining amount and get it in the mails. It will help Phi Mu.

GRAD GLEANINGS

Dependable Eddie Fincke sent us his usual prompt reply. He says that he is "still selling bonds for Fincke, Bangert & Co." It is encouraging if he is still "selling." Eddie gets up to the house for a visit once in a while.

Apple Fritchman seems to be getting along very well with the Bell Telephone Co. of Penna., in Philadelphia. He is now in the office of the General Commercial Manager and has to do with commercial office layout and equipment. He also does educational work in areas served by machine switching central offices. He and his wife were up for the Lafayette game and visited the Chapter.

Tow Phipps got his letter in early from Chicago. It was short, but it was an evidence of his old spirit. It is only once in a while that he gets east and he emphasizes this by stating that "now and then I meet civilized people."

Jake Jagels has finished his executive training course at R. H. Macy's store and now is assistant buyer in the Trunk and Hand Luggage Department. He is still living in St. Albans, L. I. He gives us the information that Eddie Gould is thoroughly married and living in Jamaica, N. Y. Letters of all kinds to Eddie, however, fail to get any dope on who the lucky girl is or what Eddie is doing. Jake also tells us in his own words that "the orchestra is going strong again to help pay gas bills for the married Brothers and to contribute toward another trip to Europe for the unmarried."

Al Johnson works under the title of Circuit Breaker Engineer for the Roller Smith Co. in Bethlehem. He confides in us that the title doesn't mean much, but we can't figure out whether he is modest or actually telling the truth. He is now living on Main Street with his wife, who was formerly Miss Harriet Bachman.

Pete Reynolds hasn't answered any letters recently, but it has come to us that he left Bethlehem late in the fall for the Middle West to take a new position. We wish him luck and also wish he would write us a line now and then.

The report got out that Slim Rau was seen at the Lafayette game. Maybe his being East accounts for his failure to answer letters. How does it feel to be in the vicinity of Bethlehem again, Slim?

Rod Hauser is still working in the sales department at his father's shoe factory and from all reports is doing very well. He gets over to the house once in a while for a visit.

Al Barthold has been at Yale, teaching, since last September, and seems to be well pleased. His only remark in answer to our question about information was this: "I have not told a dirty story to any of my classes." Is this remarkable?

Ike Bush is keeping himself busy in Allentown with the International Motor Co. We don't know what his job is, but most of the Mack trucks we see appear to be all right, so we guess his work is satisfactory.

We didn't get a report from Frank Chesterman, but we learned from other sources that he is making his father's business hum and that he is working hard. Why don't you write, Chet?

Doc Fretz has been transferred by the General Electric Co. from the Schenectady plant to the N. Y. & Queens Electric Light & Power Co., at Bridge Plaza, Long Island City. This move was due December first, but we haven't heard from him since then. He said he would probably room in the Brooklyn Y. M. C. A.

Al Gardy has kept himself quite busy since we last heard of him. Last June he opened a printing plant in Doylestown and with his advertising business, he has plenty to do. In addition to the tasks required by these two firms, he engineered the second annual Doylestown Fair with great success in October. His brother, Judy, has been in Doylestown since last August and has been helping him out.

Judy Gardy has accepted a position in Media, Pa., as Manager of the Media Branch Office of the "Chester Times," THE newspaper of Delaware County. He took charge on January 12th and expects to live in Media as soon as he can get a suitable place.

Charlie Israel has left "the woods," as he terms Frenchtown, N. J., and vicinity. He was with the Warren Paper Co., but is now in Philadelphia looking for something which pleases him more. Wish you the best of luck, Chas!

A word from George Weber says that he is General Manager of the Sanders-Taylor Oil Co., exploiting a new lease in Archer County, Texas. His address is Box 837, Wichita Falls, Texas.

We were very sorry to learn from Gil Howard that he just lost his father a few days after Christmas. He has been very busy at home, but stopped long enough to let us hear from him. The Chapter extends its deepest sympathy to you, Gil, in this time of your great sorrow.

The reason we haven't heard anything from Snork Thomas is because just before Christmas he left for Watonga, Oklahoma, to build a crushing plant for the Atlas Portland Cement Company. The news came to us from the former Nan Cranmer, Tommy's wife, who is now in Bethlehem. Nan expects to journey to the "wild and wooly West" early in February. Best luck to you both and write now and then!

After a glorious time in gay Paree and points East, Harold Kramer, better known as just plain "Q," has returned to these old United States to settle himself behind a desk on Bedford Avenue, Brooklyn, and take up the duties of secretary of the Kramer-Kusel Auto Sales Co. "Q" has a lot of stories about his trip and if you don't get a chance to get them direct from him, let Doc or Ted Underwood, Jim Hursh, Whitey Wardell or Louie Huyette tell. They were with him and their stories are just as good—and just as true.

Frank Magee has returned to East Orange from Pittsburgh. Whether he got chased out of the dirty city or he came back for some legitimate purpose, he failed to state. Anyway, we were glad to hear from him.

Hop Todd is working in the Industrial Gas Department of the Public Service Co. of New Jersey. He is living in Caldwell, N. J.

Walt Woolley is still occupied in Asbury Park and vicinity with drug stores. He has made several trips to Bethlehem to see the Brothers.

Doc Underwood has almost recovered from the trip abroad and has returned to the Compensation Inspection Rating Board. He is now titled Chief Classifier. He writes that he is still "single and happy."

Ted Underwood is working in the Traffic Department of the New York Telephone Co. The last we heard of him he was planning to leave the country. We think he was going to Newark, N. J.

Hank Shockley best news is rather late getting into print, but the Brothers extend him congratulations nevertheless on the birth of a son on March 27th of last year. Hank, in writing, said: "He seems to be very fortunate as to size, hair, brightness and intellect, and I hope the day may come when he will be a loyal Brother of Phi Mu, which also means a Lehigh man."

Hank's letter was rather lengthy and dealt with several things concerning Phi Mu. The most important topic was "Musings" and obtaining money to pay for its publication. Hank lamented the fact that the booklet has not appeared since November a year ago and also the fact that the payment for the printing was so long delayed. A few of Hank's own words might make the situation more vivid for the Brothers:

"I do not believe there is a Brother of Phi Mu who realizes his Fraternity and Chapter obligation, but who can pay something toward the publication of "Musings." Any Brother who is interested in his Fraternity must eagerly await its coming to scan the pages for all the news concerning the activities of the Brothers.

"I, therefore, can never understand why every Brother who accepts any of the benefits offered by his membership in the Fraternity, cannot accept the obligations of this membership and pay such dues and fees as he knows must accompany such a membership.

"The cost of our pamphlet's publication is small and one or two dollars a year from each Brother would easily offset the debt incurred. Every alumnus should endeavor with utmost rigidity to try to equal the splendid example of the Resident Chapter and discharge his small obligations as soon as possible.

"Let us all pay our share toward "Musings" so that we can have a better leaflet more often."

"ALPHA CHI ROANOKE"

And now we come to the outline of the Roanoke bunch.

Pat Flanagan was in Roanoke during the past summer and had many attractions there, but the Miami atmosphere called him back there to build a church. Pat likes his work because on this job he is chief engineer, inspecting engineer, timekeeper and everything.

Rus Ball has taken up church work, too, but he is also on the construction end of it, being employed by the Pace Construction Co., of Roanoke. Although Rus has been in bad health since he left Lehigh, the outside work has done him much good and we hope that he will soon be able to return to Phi Mu.

Fatz Miller is still wondering "what it is all about" and has gone so far as to have a big question mark painted on the side of his trunk. He's still in the plumbing and heating business and still an Elk. Now we know that B. P. O. E. means "Biggest Plumber On Earth," for Fatz still requires a special scale to determine his avoirdupois.

Buck Snavelly has almost deserted Roanoke in his fond attachment for Brooklyn and New York. He is still working with the Automobile Insurance Co. on Beaver Street. He gets down to Phi Mu every now and then.

Bert Bottomley seems to be lost. It has been so long since we have heard from him that life doesn't seem to be sweet any more. We could always depend on Bert to give us a prompt reply, but he has surely fallen down lately. How could you, Bert?

Dick Schubert's letters are fewer and fewer as the end of his three-year stay in South America draws near. We know that he will be glad to get back. His last letter did not say what he is going to do after his three years are up this spring with the Braden Copper Co., but we will soon be able to learn from him in person.

Hugh Rice, better known as Banker, because that is part of his name, is the last but not the least of the Southerners. He is still a resident, being a member of the Senior Class, and is gaily strutting his stuff before the college widows. He is the last of a long lineage of worthy men. Here's hoping that the roll of Alpha Chi Roanoke will always be one of which we are proud.

PHI MU ON THE HILL

Phi Mu is entering upon the new year with as many or more activities than have ever before rested with us. Practically every man in the house has some part in one or more of the divers methods of "keeping the college going." All that can be done at this time is to enumerate the different offices held by the Brothers without regard to the men who hold them.

Varsity Football, 1; Varsity Baseball, 1; Varsity Track, 1; Varsity Soccer, 1; Soccer Squad, 1; Varsity Swimming, Captain; Lacrosse Squad, 2; Manager and Assistant Manager of Wrestling; Assistant Manager of Basketball.

"Brown and White" Managing Editor, Assistant Editor, and 7 Associate Editors; "Epitome," 2; Senior Class Book, Editor; Mustard and Cheese, President and 3 Members; Y. M. C. A., Treasurer; Glee Club, 1; Chairmen of College and Tea Dance Committee; Pi Delta Epsilon, 2; Sword and Crescent, 2; Cyanide, 1; Kappa Beta Phi, 1; President Mining Society; Secretary Senior Class; Historian Junior and Freshman Classes; Freshman Basketball Squad, 2; Freshman Wrestling Squad, 1; Alpha Kappa Psi, President.

OTHER LEADERS

Phi Mu has several leaders in the Fraternity beside the Chapter Officers listed in the directory. For the benefit of the Brothers who are not in the Resident Chapter the following list is given:

House Chief	D. M. Fulton
Arcadia Representative	W. B. Wardell
Interfraternity Council Representative	F. B. Dorton
Head of the Commissary	H. B. Rice
Chairman of Scholarship Committee	George Bachman
Chairman of the Activity Committee	F. S. Astarita
Chairman of Entertainment Committee	F. B. Dorton
Librarian	W. F. Feurbach
Captain of the Basketball Team	F. S. Astarita
Captain of the Bowling Team	W. H. Walker
Captain of the Pool Team	F. B. Dorton

There are four issues of the "Garnet & White" a year and in the last few issues, news of Phi Mu men has been sadly lacking. If you get engaged, become a benedict, move, change your job, become a proud father, commit murder—anything—write to Judy Gardy at Doylestown, Pa., and tell him about it. He'll do his best to get it in readable form for the "Garnet & White." The dates the news should be in his hands are December 15, February 15, August 15 and October 15.

THE 1924 SEASON

Lehigh had a very successful season with the exception of the 7-0 defeat at the hands of Lafayette on November 22, the day of the second floor. We looked forward to the Brown and White warriors to turn the tables, but they forgot their paddles when they left Bethlehem and were sunk. Not badly, however, for they all fought hard, but the edge of one touchtown, gained in the first few minutes, proved to be enough.

Before this one and only defeat, our team had shown exceptional ability by tying Princeton 0-0, Rutgers 13-13, and Holy Cross 3-3. The other games resulted in victories over Gettysburg, Dickinson, Muhlenberg and Villanova. The season results were as follows:

Oct. 4—Lehigh 12; Gettysburg	0
Oct. 11—Lehigh 0; Princeton	0
Oct. 18—Lehigh 15; Dickinson	6
Oct. 25—Lehigh 13; Rutgers	13
Nov. 1—Lehigh 5; Muhlenberg	0
Nov. 8—Lehigh 3; Holy Cross	3
Nov. 15—Lehigh 14; Villanova	7
Nov. 22—Lehigh 0; Lafayette	7

SOCIAL NOTES

On November 15th, Phi Mu entertained Phi Alpha at a most successful formal dance at the Chapter House. Both chapters imported some talent, and, together with the good local talent always available, there was a brilliant galaxy of "la belle femme"—very much belle. The Lafayette Chapter responded very willingly and a goodly number of the boys down the river were in evidence. New hardwood floors recently laid, clever decorations arranged by under-classmen and a good orchestra helped to make the dance the best in years.

Phi Alpha reciprocated with a snappy informal buffet supper and dance after the Lafayette-Lehigh game. Our bunch attended "en masse," the happy stags and those whose Bachanalian activities were restricted by feminine accompaniment—if you get what I mean. Everyone enjoyed the party and we thank our Neighbor Chapter for a very good time had by all. By the way, Otto himself was there with belles on—one on each arm.

Further social plans for the season are well under way, and after Convention Phi Mu will give an open dance, to which the entire college will be invited. At present, however, our undivided attention is given to the approaching Convention so that we may do our part in making it the best ever in the history of Alpha Chi Rho.

ENGAGEMENT

Miss Geraldine Louise Buckman, daughter of Mrs. Louis Buckman, of Chestnut Hill, Pa., to Brother J. Allen Gardy, of Doylestown, Pa., on December 24, 1923.
